

University of Windsor Labour Studies
Programme

Time: 3:00-5:00 PM

&
The Windsor Workers' Action Centre
Present a Panel on:

Date: Monday, February
7, 2011

Uncertain Times: Precarious Employment and Young Workers

Panelists will critically address different aspects of the employment situation for current and graduating University students, focusing on the challenges associated with precarious employment.

Panelists:

- ◆ Mr. Zachary Gerard, History Student, University of Windsor
- ◆ Dr. Wayne Lewchuk, Professor of Economics and Labour Studies, McMaster University— Precarious Employment: The Future of Work?
- ◆ Dr. Kendra Coulter, Professor of Sociology and Anthropology, University of Windsor— Good Jobs for All? Problems and Possibilities for Graduating Students
- ◆ Dr. Alan Hall, Director, Labour Studies, University of Windsor— Labour and Employment Law: Why isn't it Working?

Oak Room, Vanier Hall, University of Windsor

For more information, contact Dr. Hall at hall4@uwindsor.ca.